of securing the bundle and investigating its contents. It was a suit of clothes tied up in a sack. In one of the pockets, sewed up, was found a valuable locket, one of the alleged stolen articles found in another pocket, also sewed up, was a valuable chain. The "stitch" was made by a sewing machine.

On Monday evening last, at 7 o'clock, Mrs. Vandergift left the house, she says, to visit a neighboring grocery, for the purpose of purchasing some family supplies. She had hardly left her doorway when some villain, masked and cloaked muffled up in a heavy overcoat, met her. Just as she met and was about to pass him, he threw, what she thought fell like, snow in her face. He did so a second time, and in a larger quantity than the first, but, fortunately, she had thrown up her hands to her face, and the hands received the most of it.

THE SNOW CHASE TO FIRE.
She hurried back into the house, screaming and crying out, "I am burning up! I am burning up!" As soon as he could do so, Mr. Vandergift hurried to the door, and, finding that the fire was not seen, he called out, "What is the matter?" Mr. Franklin B. Gaunt, the leading physician, was hastily summoned, and Major Kling, who has been living here since the fire, was also present. The fire was due to the application of auriferic acid. The burns were painful, but are not as extensive nor as dangerous as was at first feared.

On Tuesday an itinerant young woman named Harry Heflick, on his way up Union street, saw the steps of the Rev. Mr. Eastwood and Watchmaker Oliver, a bundle wrapped up in a check shirt. He unrolled it, and, as he did so, a gold watch, some silverware, a chain, and "some other," tumbled out.

THE RECENTLY DISCOVERED CONTENTS.
What the entire contents of this mysterious bundle were only the Mayor and other officials knew, for, for young Gaunt, at one time, turned out to be a peaceable miner, where he demanded a passport. This being denied him he proceeded to the house of John Craft, a peaceable miner, where he demanded a passport. ANOTHER OF THE GANG.

THE JESSE JAMES FAMILY AGAIN.

A Nephew of the Notorious Bandit Distinguishes Himself in a Shooting Scrape—Murder of a Notorious Texas Gambler.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Jan. 28.—"Billy the Kid," alias Jim Foley, a notorious gambler, was shot and killed Sunday night by Henry Hittson, a farmer. The men were throwing dice for money, and became noisy that the bartender ordered them into a back room. They went, when each claimed to have a horse on the other. Hittson finally took the money, and slapped Foley when the latter tried to get it away. They were separated, and Hittson started out, followed by Foley, who caught him by the shoulder near the back door. Hittson pushed him, when Foley put him in his brooch pocket, and just as he pulled it out Hittson pulled a pistol and fired, following it up with a second shot. Foley was laid on the table, being shot in the neck and between the seventh and eighth ribs. Hittson waited for him to be killed, but he was not yet dead. Hittson was followed by mounted officers for eight miles, but he was not yet dead. Hittson was followed by mounted officers for eight miles, but he was not yet dead. Terrible Whiskey Fight Among Coal Miners.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 28.—A coal miner and unprovoked murder was committed at Hays's Coal Works. Stephen Morris, a miner, became very drunk and quarrelsome. By accident his footstep struck at one of the boys of John Craft, a peaceable miner, where he demanded a passport. This being denied him he proceeded to the house of John Craft, a peaceable miner, where he demanded a passport. This being denied him he proceeded to the house of John Craft, a peaceable miner, where he demanded a passport.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 29, 1884.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

A VISITOR
Whom business brings,
Has lately said
Some kindly things.
Our merchants all
Are firm as rock,
With not a black sheep
In the flock.

The handsome towel raffled last night, by Mrs. Jennie Thompson, was drawn by Mrs. Jennie Williams.

MITCHELL, the candy man on Market street, is doing a land office business. His manufactures are very popular.

The new Presbyterian church, if constructed of our native limestone, would be the handsomest building in the city.

It is said that the salt which some of our citizens are putting on the freestone pavements about town are injurious to them.

UNDER the laws of Kentucky it is not lawful to kill partridges after the first day of February. Hunters should bear this in mind.

ANOTHER building to be constructed of pressed brick will go up in the spring. Mayville is getting to be famous for this kind of work.

The latest enterprise we have heard suggested for Mayville is a furniture factory to be established by a company with a capital of $50,000.

VERY much to the credit of our coal dealers the price of fuel, during the recent cold spell, was kept as low as any reasonable person could expect.

ELLEN THOMPSON, colored, the woman arrested on Sunday for abandoning her child, has filed a suit for bastardy against Jacob Ditz, colored, who, she alleges, is its father.

MISS BELLE LUTHER's class in wood carving and brass beating began work yesterday. The entire community is very much interested in the introduction of Mayville of this beautiful and useful art.

MISS ELIZA FRAZER, widow of Joseph Frazer, died at Murphysville, yesterday at noon, aged about eighty-four years. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at Washington, at half-past ten o'clock, from the church.

A TRAVELER for a large Cincinnati house who was here recently says he knows of no town in the country where the merchants are so generally good for their obligations as in Mayville. This is a high compliment for the town and is a merited one.

A FINE oil portrait of the late Judge W. S. Botts, the work of Mr. Jas. Campbell, of Carlisle, a young artist of unusual talent, is on exhibition in the show window of George Orr's furniture store. A portrait of Mr. W. H. Means by the same artist is also on exhibition at Peco's drug store.

The premium which the street car company with characteristic liberality, orders each month to the driver who carries the greatest number of passengers, promises to fall to Mr. Chas. Farmer driver of No. 5. As all the drivers are polite, obliging and popular, the contest is usually a very close one.

This total receipts from the Sunday school supper, in Clusters, amounted to $65.77, which will be applied to the purchase of an organ, which is much needed. The lady managers have requested the BULLETIN to return their thanks to all who aided to make the supper a success.

REV. S. E. WISHARD arrived in this city last night and will commence a meeting in the Presbyterian Church this evening at seven o'clock, assisting the pastor, Rev. S. B. Alderson. The meeting this evening will be especially for the young people, without excluding those who are older. All are cordially invited to attend.

The annual election of the Brown and Adams County Horsethief Society took place at Gilbert's school house, in Huntington township, and resulted as follows: President, Dyas Gilbert, Hiett; Vice President, T. Buchanan, Ripley; Treasurer, Wm. H. Means, Hiett; Secretary, Samuel Evans, Hiett; Captain, John Buchanan, Ripley.

There will be religious services by the Southern Presbyterian congregation at the Third Street Presbyterian Church, next Wednesday evening. There will be, also, preaching next Sunday morning and a lecture in the evening. Subject: "The Harmony of the Bible and Geology." The services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. T. Hendrick. All are cordially invited.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Charles S. Miner left for the East this morning.

Mr. Sam. Chinn left yesterday on a business trip to Cincinnati.

Mr. Will McGraw, of Flemingsburg, is visiting friends in this city.

Miss Maggie Sudduth, of Flemingsburg, is visiting Mrs. Geo. T. Wood.

Col. John B. Hemdon, of Sandus, is the guest of Mr. J. F. Broderick, yesterday.

Hon. W. A. Sudduth and wife, of Flemingsburg, are the guests of Mayor January.

Miss Mollie McGraw, of Flemingsburg, is the guest of Miss Maggie Fitzgerald, of Lexington street.

Mr. Throckmorton Forman, son of Mrs. Hannah Forman, of Louisville, is visiting the family of Dr. H. C. Morgan of this city.

The steamer Dick Fulton, after being ice bound here for several weeks, steamed up to Ellis' bar yesterday to look after her barges. The Sampson is still at the landing.

Mr. John Sullivan, son of Jerry Sullivan, Esq., who has been serving in the United States army for the past year, has been honorably discharged and is at home again.

MA. C. W. BIRD has received from his friend, Mr. Ralph Oldham, who is now at Las Vegas, New Mexico, a handsome cross which is constructed of the valuable ore found in that region. It contains twenty-seven kinds. It was sent to Mr. Bierley as a Christmas gift.

MASTER THORP BROWNING was severely injured, yesterday, by being struck in the eye by a snow ball. Such sport is senseless and ought to be prohibited.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Let the good work go on.
No candidate for the spring election yet, H. B. McFadyen's family have moved to Ripley.

G. B. Spears has arrived from his Western tour.
Capt. Geo. Barkley has returned from Clermont County.

It is regretted we chronicle the illness of Miss Ruth Souder.
The sick brigade under Capt. J. Hall and Abney are making regular trips.

Miss Geo. Howard was conveyed to the asylum Monday, by her physician Dr. J. W. Galt.

Ye Gods, and little fishes, but Alex handles the ribbons with the grace of an old stage, and yet you would have thought so if you had seen him out driving with his lady on Sunday.

Carr & Rist, the urbane and gentlemanly proprietors of the literary stable are doing thriving business in their sleek department. The regulars, Mr. Carr, Sr., were retained in the Charter Oak cemetery on Saturday evening at the house.

His mood was pensive, his demeanor soft, it seemed as if visions of solitude floated over his mind, but whether to consider his body to the busy deep (like mackerel barrel) or cellulose into a cork, he was not sure, and well the coldness is (ween them) has melted.

COUNTY POINTS.

TWO LICK.
Oyster suppers are all the go.

Win. R. Mullikin was riding across Two Lick on the ice a few days since, when his horse fell and broke its leg.

Poor honest necken they would be glad if the snow would melt with a heaving.
There was an oyster supper at Mr. Inscho's last Wednesday night. About seventy persons were present and everything passed off pleasantly.

CLUSTER.
There is considerable sickness here at present.

Mrs. Martin Spender died on Monday night at nine o'clock.

Mrs. J. F. Lee has a fine calla lily which is now in full bloom.

We are just a few months school instead of five months, owing to an increase of the school term.

Cluster invites immigration. Fine building jobs are to be had at a low price and all new centers will be warmly welcomed. The town is pleasantly situated, easily accessible to Mayville and contains an industries and thriving population.

FOR AND ABOUT WOMEN.

Ninety-three women suffrage petitions containing 5,570 signatures have been sent to the Massachusetts Legislature since Jan. 1, 1884. "The cry is, still they come."

Miss Alice Rumph, a governess in Col. Thomas Berry's family, in Rome, Ga., stood by the stove, and her gown caught fire. She sprang for a bed and rolled herself in the clothes. The fire was extinguished, and she was unharmed; but some sparks set the bed on fire, and the house was burned to the ground.

Under Mississippi law a woman is liable to indictment for assault if she strikes her husband; but the man is not liable for assaulting the woman if he uses a switch no larger than his little finger in doing so. It is now proposed to so amend the statutes to give the wife the same immunity that her husband enjoys.

The old saying that long courtships are never attended with happy results has belied the fact that on January 8, there were married at Grimsburg Church, in England, Mr. Richard Cookson and Miss Alice Sumner, whose courtship has been to the satisfaction of the community.

They are both over seventy.
Amy Bell, aged seven, walked into the Merrimack Savings Bank, in Manchester, N. H., and tried to tempt the institution. As she was unattended, ex-Governor Smyth, the Treasurer, became her escort, and showed her everything, even to the complicated locks upon the massive doors of the safe. Then she expressed her approval, and said that as her father had deposited $5 for her, she had the curiosity to see for herself whether it was safe; and she went away with her face beaming with satisfaction.

It is wise to provide against emergencies that are liable to arise in every family. A cold may be a dangerous thing or not, depending upon the means at hand to combat it. In sudden attacks of cold, croup, asthma, etc., Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will prove the quickest and most effective cure, and your best friend.

George Andrews, overseer in the Lowell Carpet Corporation, was, for over twenty years before his removal to Lowell, afflicted with salt rheum in its worst form. Its elevations actually covered more than half the surface of his body and limbs. He was entirely cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. See certificate in Ayer's Almanac for 1883.

Wills' World Worm Candy is not an untired quick remedy or experiment; it is the regular prescription put up in an attractive form. It is a specific dose up so that any child will eat it without any trouble and you will know what will be the result. Physicians will tell you to use it for it is the best medicine for worms ever given.

Of the many remedies before the public for nervous debility and weakness of nerve generative system, there is none equal to Allen's Brain Food, which promptly and permanently restores all lost vigor; it never fails. $1 a package, 6 for $5—At druggists or by mail from J. H. Allen, 315 First Avenue, New York City.

The Prize of Beauty
would never have been awarded to Venus if her teeth had been yellow. Frail mortals, unlike the deities of fable, have perishable teeth, but these they may retain unimpaired to an advanced age, if they will use sapolint, which keeps the teeth free from impurities which destroy them and adds tenders them objects of admiration. It is pure, refreshing, leaves an agreeable flavor in the mouth, and sweetens the breath.

An Undoubted Blessings
About thirty years ago a prominent physician by the name of Dr. William Hall discovered, or produced after long experimental research, a remedy for diseases of the throat, chest and lungs, which was of such wonderful efficacy that it soon gained a wide reputation in this country. The name of the medicine was Hall's Balm for the Lungs, and may be safely relied on as a speedy and positive cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, etc.

THE COLORADO HORROR.
Homes About the Mouth of the Ill-Fated Mine.
DENVER, Colo., Jan. 28.—The inquest on the victims of the mining disaster was continued until a few minutes after midnight when an adjournment was taken until Monday. The evidence given showed that the air provided was five to six times the quantity required by law, and that the explosion occurred while the traffic of chamber eighteen, which was full of gas, was being repaired. The two remaining bodies, making a total of fifty-nine, were brought up Sunday. Both presented a ghastly sight. The frame building for the funeral service on which forty men had been working for two days was completed early in the morning and the bodies placed in it. No date has been fixed for the funeral. There has been no renewal of excitement although fears are expressed that an attempt may yet be made to lynch mine boss Gibson.

The Railroad War.
CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—The petition of the Burlington road, regarding the tripartite alliance, has been the one absorbing subject of discussion among railroad men and stock brokers, and the usual Sabbath quiet in such circles has been broken by numerous conferences and the sending and receiving of dispatches from New York and other points upon the subject. As stated in these dispatches it was generally understood the Burlington had decided to become a party to the alliance, and a positive statement to that effect has been telegraphed to prominent railroad men in New York by a reliable authority than President Cable, of the Rock Island. On the other hand, it is positively stated that early Sunday morning a dispatch from General Manager Potter was received in this city to the following effect: "There is no truth whatever in the statement that a settlement of the difficulty has been agreed upon, or that there is any immediate prospect of the roads interested coming to an understanding." President Cable, of the Rock Island, left for the East Saturday night, and Mr. Potter is in Iowa and will not return for a week, and another immediate peace conference is therefore impossible.

The Senate Private Land Claims Bill.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The only special order on the Senate calendar is the bill for ascertaining and settling private land claims in certain States and Territories. This bill probably came up Monday at two o'clock. Mr. Sherman's resolution relating to the political rights at Danville, Va., and Copiah, Miss., should be considered in the morning hour. Mr. Mahone has a speech prepared on this subject, and the general understanding is that he will be followed by Senators on both sides of the Chamber. Mr. Lamar, it is reported, will take the floor after the Virginia Senator. Mr. Vest is also expected to speak specially in regard to the Mississippi matter. Should there be a fair prospect of finishing the debate to-morrow, the special order will be laid aside temporarily. Otherwise the consideration of the resolution may take several days to dispose of it after routine business.

The Situation in Egypt.
LONDON, Jan. 28.—General Gordon has telegraphed to Colonel Coetlogon directing him to send an emissary from Khartoum to the False Prophet, El Mahdi, and to suspend any active operations until he receives further orders from General Gordon, who is the only one empowered to make a definite action. General Gordon brought with him £50,000 and has since received £50,000. Some important Bedouin tribes near Bichach have yielded to persuasion and have surrendered at Berlin. The Rothschilds have loaned to the Khedive £500,000 for six months at six per cent.

The Earl and His Tenants.
SCOTCH, Eng., Jan. 28.—The negotiations by the Earl of Devon and his tenants in County Limerick, Ireland, have fallen through. Of the 800 tenants to whom his circular was addressed, 300 offered to purchase their holdings at from twelve to ten years value. These offers were refused by the Earl because he believed they were instigated by the Land League agitators.

Worn, Weary, and Wretched.
"As weak as a cat" is an expression frequently used by debilitated sufferers who are trying to tell how forlorn they feel. It is an incorrect expression, for a cat is one of the most agile and vigorous animals in existence. It would be more correct to say, "as weak as a limp old dog," for that gives the idea of utter inability to hold one's self up. The weary person who feels thus is generally worn, worried, woe-filled, and wretched. Sometimes it is a case of overwork, and sometimes of imperfect nourishment. The blood in the system of a person who is "as weak as a rag" is in a wretchedly thin condition. It needs iron, to impart richness, redness, and strength. This is to be had by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, the only safe and proper preparation of iron in connection with gentle and powerful tonics. The physician and the druggist can tell the worn and weary how valuable a remedy BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been found in actual every-day use.
